Ronald Chapeau, The Hague, 1969.

Several years ago, Ronald has chosen to combine his artistic insight, creativity and passion for art on canvas.

Through his years of experience as a silk screen printer for, Herman Brood, and Corneille he now knows how to use a great technique in his paintings.

There are added only original details on the small editions simultaneously Pop, Surrealism, touching and figurative populism. This creates an exciting, bright colored mixed media artwork by this artist.

Lincy Hoogveld

De schilderijen van Lincy Hoogveld (Herveld, Nederland) zijn mixed media werken die bijna organisch als een bas-reliëf op het doek gebeiteld werden, alleen ... ze werden geschilderd.

De kunstenaar slaagt er in, met deze ogenschijnlijk zware materialen, lichtvoetige en frisse droomobjecten te toveren, waarbij de verwondering een onuitputbare bron van inspiratie blijkt te zijn.

De personages die ze schildert zijn warme idyllische figuren, gestileerd en tot hun essentie herleid, maar voorzien van een aantal - veelal ronde en somptueuze - attributen die hen een dromerig bijna feeëriek voorkomen geven. Een felle kleurentoets zorgt ervoor dat deze figuren geen statische standbeelden zijn maar voluit tot leven komen en emotie uitdragen

Celina Dorrestein

Celina Dorrestein (1985) grew up in Soest. As a child she was already fascinated by atmosphere and light.

She has trained as a photographer and started a small photo studio. Soon she expanded it to a large photostudio in Amersfoort where she works both on assignment and makes her own work.

Celina can be described as an all-round photographer with a preference for studio, travel, animal and urbex photography. The last genre is visiting and photograph abandoned and decayed buildings. Every building has its own special history and a visit brings with it the necessary tension. This can be seen in the photos that all have their own unique atmosphere. She distinguishes herself by bringing her own style back into particularly light and creative compositions.

Julia Simonis [02-04-1980]

Graduated artist with a passion for pigments, color, texture and fabrics. She works in a mixed media style with these authentic materials. The works are carefully assembled in different layers, giving the work beautiful details and depth. Themes in her work are diverse, from landscapes to portraits and abstract paintings.

She is obsessed with the techniques of the old masters like Rembrandt, Vermeer and wants to apply these techniques in a modern way in her work. Inspiration can be found everywhere, in the light, in the colors of flowers, on her travels and in photography, which is also a hobby of her. S

Hans Jochem Bakker

Hans Jochem Bakker (1948) is an autodidact of an old artist's family. Inspired by artists like Salvador Dalí, Miró and Picasso, he has taken over parts of their southern temperament in his theme, such as a special interest for birds, horses and women.

As spontaneously possible, honest, straight from the passionate artist heart. A rounded story does not even exist. Everything is moving, and that's also the main reason to continue painting.

In addition to the greater freedom and thus the ability to react immediately, to respond to what is happening, there is also space for attention to the composition, structure and material. This completes the painting process and becomes a unit of shape, color and movement
